

Ἡτᾱίροι

A Living History Project

We are an association of people interested in history, who share the common goal to bring history to life. Our members come from Germany and Austria. Our historical impressions focus on ancient Greece, from the Classical era to Hellenism, and the neighbouring cultures, such as Italians, Persians, Thracians, and Scythians.

We recreate our equipment based on archeological finds, iconographic sources, or texts from ancient historians, and strive to test the reconstructions in actual use. In this capacity, we gladly assist museums in bringing to life the items exhibited in the showcases. Naturally, we also work with educational institutions to support lessons focussing on our areas of interest, or give them ourselves.

This flyer is intended to give museums and interested institutions a brief overview of our conditions. Please make sure to also visit our website, in order to get a complete impression.

Development of the Programme

Usually, we will work together with you in advance to create a programme that is specifically tailored to your requirements, no matter if you are planning a museum event or a lesson. Our capabilities depend on the conditions of your site, and reach from the simple presence at an event to answer questions, to narrated presentations and scenic impressions, to the reenactment of daily life in reconstructed houses.

Previous Cooperations

Among others, we have worked with the following museums and institutions.

- Château de Châteaubriant, Frankreich
- Ephesos Museum in Wien
- Freilichtmuseum Heuneburg
- Historisches Museum der Pfalz in Speyer
- Kunsthistorisches Museum in Wien
- Labor für experimentelle Archäologie in Mayen
- Musée gallo romain de Saint-Romain-en-Gal in Frankreich
- Reiss-Engelhorn-Museen in Mannheim
- Römermuseum Schwarzenacker
- Universität Duisburg-Essen
- Varusschlacht Museum und Park Kalkriese

Compensation

Our financial compensation is negotiated individually in each case and is based on your and our capabilities. We usually aim to cover the following costs for our members.

- Travel expenses for every member travelling individually.
- Subsistence expenses during the event, unless you are able to provide meals.
- Lodging expenses during the event, unless you are able to provide lodging or camping sites.
- A compensation of 100€ per day for each active member.
